

D Young & Co LLP agree to firm-wide rollout of pdfDocs after successful pilot

London, UK – 7th June 2010 – KnowHow Consulting, a provider of leading edge information management solutions, are to supply DocsCorp's pdfDocs solution suite to D Young & Co LLP in a firm-wide rollout after a successful pilot.

D Young & Co are one of over 20 law firms, patent attorneys and other organisations that KnowHow manage and support for Open Text's solutions as well as pdfDocs, Kofax and SharePoint. The firm will be rolling out pdfDocs Desktop and formFiller to be integrated with eDOCS DM and provide functionality such as matter bible creation and a simple method of filling out PDF forms as well as OCR Server to provide a workflow integrated with pdfDocs Desktop and eDOCS DM.

D Young & Co provides a comprehensive intellectual property service, specialising exclusively in patents, trade marks, designs and related IP rights. Chris Walmsley, IT Manager at D Young & Co said, "After evaluating pdfDocs Desktop, formFiller and OCR Server, we found that the ease of use and integration with eDOCS DM made it an easy decision to acquire the software for D Young & Co and add value to our document management solution. The ongoing involvement of KnowHow and DocsCorp during the pilot was immensely helpful and we are looking forward to a continuing relationship with both companies."

"We are delighted to add D Young & Co to our growing portfolio of clients using pdfDocs," says Mark Harding, Head of Sales & Marketing at KnowHow Consulting, "many of our clients have seen the benefits of having a PDF solution integrated with Open Text eDOCS DM or Livelink/Content Server and with several other pilots underway, we are looking forward to more rollouts"

As a key DocsCorp partner for EMEA, KnowHow are able to leverage their experience with Open Text's and DocsCorp's solutions to provide pdfDocs to firms of all sizes integrating with Open Text eDOCS DM or Livelink/Content Server. pdfDocs Solutions suite comprises several modules for PDF conversion/redaction/manipulation, bible creation and form filling as well as comparison tools, metadata tools and OCR Server.
